

ION Board of Directors Names Sarah Meyerrose as President Elect, Sara Meyer-Davis as Secretary New Officers' Financial, Diversity Experience Support Mission to Increase Number of Women on Corporate Boards

Boca Raton, FL – July 18, 2011 – The InterOrganization Network (ION) Board of Directors named Sarah Meyerrose as president elect and Sara Meyer-Davis as secretary. Ms. Meyerrose is currently ION's treasurer and will assume the role of president at the end of President Charlotte Laurent-Ottomane's term in 2012. In addition to serving on the ION Board, both women are active within the ION Member Organizations they represent; Ms. Meyerrose with Nashville CABLE and Ms. Meyer-Davis with the Financial Women's Association New York.

"As one of ION's priorities is to educate investors about the positive economic impact of gender diversity, Sarah's experience in the financial industry will be invaluable. And Sara's work with various diversity and inclusion initiatives will help us move forward with critical objectives," said ION President Charlotte Laurent-Ottomane. "We're fortunate to have these accomplished women serve as officers on our Board of Directors."

Sarah Meyerrose is the principal of SMSS LLC, a consulting company focused on improving the strategic performance and human resources practices for regional and community banks. She has held a wide variety of leadership positions during her 30 years in the banking industry, most of which were spent with First Horizon National Corporation (FHN-NYSE). Ms. Meyerrose is a member of the inaugural Board of Visitors for the Owen School, as well as a member of Nashville CABLE and Women Business Leaders in Healthcare, among other community and service club affiliations.

Sara Meyer-Davis is the founder of Strategic Diversity Advisors, an advisory firm that counsels clients to achieve a competitive advantage by commercializing diversity. Previously at Credit Suisse First Boston she was the director of global diversity and inclusion and the global head of human resources for the Information Technology Division of 4,200 employees. Ms. Meyer-Davis is a member of the Financial Women's Association Leadership Committee, on the Steering Committee for the YWCA Academy of Women Leaders Salute and provided pro-bono consulting for Legal Momentum.
